

Statutory Declaration (Police and Medical)

I, _____
(First name) (Last name)

of _____ (Full address)

Do solemnly and sincerely declare that:

- Police Check
I have a prior police conviction never had a Police conviction

I have lodged an application for a Criminal History Record Check (commonly called a 'Police Check'), and I will present this to the Home upon receipt, prior to commencing duty.

As a person who has been a permanent resident in a country other than Australia or held citizenship of another country, I set out details of all criminal convictions incurred in those countries on the rear of this declaration [Delete if not relevant]

Note: If a Person has been:

- (a) convicted of murder or sexual assault; or
- (b) convicted of, and sentenced to imprisonment for any other form of assault, they are precluded from working within an Aged Care Facility by Federal Law.

Having a prior Police conviction for another offence will not automatically preclude a person from working in the Home. For other convictions, the Home is required by law to determine (given all the circumstances) the suitability of a person to work within the facility.

- Medical
I have no known illness or disability that would impinge on my ability to carry out my duties as a _____ (Position)

I make this declaration under the Statutory Declarations Act 1959. I understand that a person who intentionally makes a false statement in a statutory declaration is guilty of an offence under Section 11 of the Statutory Declarations Act 1959, and I believe that the statements in this declaration are true in every particular.
